CHRISTIAN TEACHINGS AND DEVOTIONS [A200→A299]

Christian History Institute:

“Apostles’ Creed”, concise summary of Biblical faith taught to new believers in the Church, by Christian History Institute – panel of 11 international and interdenominational theologians

[A210a]

Curtis, Ken: Christian minister became a film-maker
(e.g. “The Cross and the Switchblade” A700 WILK D-1).

He founded:

- (a) Vision Video (VV),
- (b) Gateway Films (GF),
- (c) Christian History Institute (CHI) (including “Christian History Magazine”), subsequently taken over by Christianity Today (with magazine now called “Christian History and Biography”).

His purpose was to provide a wide range of Christian and family videos for all ages – to allow families and Churches to have an historic awareness of how God has worked among His people all over the world over the centuries – to communicate the Gospel in secular cinemas. Many of the videos in the video library were produced by VV, GF, CHI.

Giglio, Louis:

“Indescribable”

[A230a]

“How Great is our God”

[A230b]

“Hope, when life hurts most”

[A230c]

Louis Giglio has a passion for God and his unfathomable size and power and love. In his first two talks, “Indescribable” and “How Great is Our God”, complete with photos from space and quotations from the Bible, he expresses:

Firstly, the wonders of God’s creation of the universe at the macroscopic level – the many elements of the universe such as earth, sun, stars and galaxies counted in the billions, trillions and quadrillions and the huge magnitudes of space and time measured in millions of light-years.

Secondly, the wonders of God’s creation of life at the microscopic level. Our life is a miracle – we are fearfully and wonderfully made with trillions of cells, molecules, DNA and genomes.

Thirdly, the wonders of God’s “astronomical grace” and salvation plan - the fact that, as small as we may seem on our planet, this huge God, the creator of the universe, created us, knows everything about us, cares about us, promises to preserve and restore us and sent His Son to reconcile us to God and give life everlasting (the Gospel).

In “Hope, when life hurts most”, his third talk, Louis Giglio’s message, per the dust-jacket, is: “Although God does not offer any easy solutions [to our problems and setbacks], He does offer Himself and His cross as an anchor of hope no matter what we face in life. And more than simply enduring suffering, the hope we find in Him allows us to leverage our darkest moments for His fame [i.e. His glory]. When life hurts most the world listens most intensely to our message, allowing us to broadcast through our pain the goodness of the One who loves us the most”.

Strobel, Lee: - atheist, journalist, former lawyer and legal editor - determined to investigate the evidence for Jesus to determine if there is credible evidence that Jesus of Nazareth really was the Son of God. He went to the experts, recognized authorities on Jesus, scholars with doctorates from Cambridge, Princeton, Brandeis, and other top-flight institutions. He cross-examined them with tough questions: How reliable is the New Testament? Does evidence exist for Jesus outside the Bible? Is there any reason to believe the resurrection was an actual historical event? In the end, this atheist became a Christian.

“The Case for Christ: The Evidence for Jesus” [A285j]
